THE MATTHYSEN-BANCKERS OF SLEEPY HOLLOW.

BY EDW. DOUBLEDAY HARRIS.

The name of Laurens Matthÿzen first occurs in the records of the Dutch Church of New York, March 28, 1686, in connection with the baptism of his daughter Anneken. Thereafter, until his disappearance from the records in 1704, his surname appears as Matthÿzen, Matthÿszen, Mathÿse and Mathÿs.

The name, however, under one or the other of its diverse spellings, is found upon the church records at a much earlier date. May 28, 1651, Abraham and Isaac, sons of Anthony Matthÿszen, a negro, were baptized, followed in 1654 by Cosmus, and in the next year by Cecilia, of the same father. The parents were probably members of the free colored colony, rather than slaves owned by one of the burgomaster families of the town.

In 1662, Anna, daughter of Nicolaes Matthysz and Barentie Dircks, was baptized, but as subsequent baptisms of children of Cornelis and Barentie Dircks are recorded, it is probable that the name erred in the father's Christian name, and that Cornelius should be read for Nicholas in the first instance—particularly as Cornelis Matthÿszen, van Stockholm, en Barentje Dircks, j. m. van Meppel, had been joined in marriage, Feb. 26, 1661. The children of this pair were (besides Anna, 1662) Matthys, 1665, Hendrick, 1669, Catharina, 1676, Sarah and Rachel, 1681. Cornelius appears also as a witness to the baptism of Barbertie, daughter of Jan Adamszen and Geertruyd Dircks in 1666.

Annetje Matthys, the wife of Jan Hendrickszen, was the mother of a son Matthys, baptized in 1671. She was undoubtedly the young maid of Fort Orange who was married to Jan Hendricks at Kingston in 1668, and there resided.

One Jeams Matthyszen (and Matthys) was witness to baptisms in 1672 and 1677.

Lysbeth Matthys and Matthys Janszen had daughter Engeltje baptized in 1678.

The names of the witnesses in the various baptisms noted fail to suggest any connection between these Matthyszens and the Laurens Matthysen whose issue we attempt to follow. He might easily have been a son of Cornelius above, but nothing has been found to indicate any relationship with either the New York or Kingston families of the name.

The wife of Laurens<sup>1</sup> Matthysen was Janneken Hendricks. Their family record, as gathered from the baptismal book of the Dutch Church in New York, is as follows:

Anneken,<sup>2</sup> of Laurens Matthysen and Janneken Hendricksen, bap. March 28, 1686; wit.: Jan der Val and Catharina Van Cortlant.

Hendrick, of Laurens Matthyszen and Janneken Hendricks, bap. April 1, 1688; wit.: Stephanus Van Cortlant and Geertruyd Schuyler.

Maria, of Laurens Matthyszen and Janneken Hendrick, bap. March 25, 1691; wit: Jan Hermanszen and Metje Hardenbroeck.

Rombout, of Laurens Matthyszen and Jannetje Hendrick, bap. May 17, 1696; wit.: Jacobus van Cortlandt and Catalina Van Cortlandt, the wife of Frederic Philipszen.

Fredrik, of Lourense Matthyse and Jannetje Hendrick, bap. May 22, 1698; wit.: Brant Schuyler and Catharina Cortlant.

The occurrence of the name of Philipse as a witness, suggesting an examination of the Sleepy Hollow records, the search there is rewarded by the discovery of this entry:

Adolff, of Lourens Mathyse and Jannitje, his wife, bap. —, 1701; wit.: Gerridt Van Weerdt and Catharina Phillips.

Then follows again in the New York records:

Rombout, of Louwerens Mathys and Niese de Groot, bap. Nov. 5, 1704; wit.: Philippus Van Cortlant and Catharina Philips, widow.

There is no further mention of Laurens Matthysen in connection with the Dutch Church of New York. But the Sleepy Hollow records continue the history. In 1705 he was a witness there at the baptisms of a child of Andries Van Dyk and his wife Geesje, and of a child of Lodewyck Ackerman and his wife Hillegond. Then follows:

Barber (Barbara), of Lourens Mathysse and Niese, his wife, bap. June 16, 1707; wit.: Bastiaen Michiels and Galant, his wife.

In 1709 Lourens and his wife Niesje witnessed the baptism of a son of Andries Van Dyk and his wife Geesje. Then in 1711 comes this entry:

Johannes, of Louwrens Banckert and Niessje, his wife, bap. March 21, 1711; wit.: Abraham Van Dyck and Marytje de Groot.

And on the same day Louwrens and Niessje Bankert witnessed the baptism of Jenneke, the daughter of Hendrick Krankheyt and Antje, his wife. After the entry of 1709 the surname Matthyse or Matthysen disappears forever from the Sleepy Hollow records, and Laurens Matthyse, his wife Niesse, and his children, thereafter are known as Banckens or Banckers. On 21st March, 1710, the son Hendrick "Bankert" and his sister Marytie (Maria) witnessed the baptism of Louwrens, the son of Hendrick Krankheyt, this being the earliest appearance of the name of Bancker, in any of its forms, upon the record. In the Register of Members of the Sleepy Hollow Church No. 57 are "Antje Banckert, wife of Henry Krankheyt," and Nos. 59 and 60 are "Lowrens Mathysse Banckert and Niese De Groot, his wife was organized in 1697, and was put under the pastoral of Domine Bertholf of Hackensack, but the member list was compiled until some years later, thus accounting for Laurens being recorded as Banckerts instead of Matthys.

Mr. Cole's presentation of the old record book of the church it is set forth that "after Lord Frederick Philipse had come into possession of his land tract (i. e. the manor of Philipsburgh) he contracted with a number of people to come upon it without charge, that the land might be quickly cleared and settled." This was about the year 1680. The wife of the lord of the manor was Catharina, daughter of Stevens Van Cortlandt, and widow of Jan der Val. The marriage was contracted in 1692, and it seems very probable that Laurens Matthyssen, who had been living near New York (perhaps on the manor of Van Cortlandt) had been enrolled in the Dutch church there followed by Jan der Val when she removed to the Philipse home. She then, with her first husband, witnessed the baptism of the first child of Laurens and Janneken in 1686. Stephen Van Cortlandt witnessed the baptism of the second child in 1688, and Catharina again, as Philipse's wife, witnessed the baptism of the third child. Then in 1698, in 1701 and in 1704, she stood successively for Frederick, Adolff, and the second Rombout, all being the Philipse family names. It is easy to believe that Laurens Matthyssen was one of those desirable people that the lord of the manor sought as settlers. Lady Catharina was influential in gathering the church at Sleepy Hollow, her name heading the list of members, and naturally Laurens and his wife transferred their association thereto from the more distant congregation in New York.

The date of Laurens Banker's death has not been learned. He was certainly alive in 1735, and must then have been an old man, probably as old as seventy-five years. His second wife, Niese (Agnes), was also alive at that time, 1735.

HENDRICK<sup>3</sup> BANCKER (Laurens'), probably the oldest son was born April 1, 1688. His marriage is thus recorded at Sleepy Hollow, 1715, Hendrick Banckert, j. m., b. in Phillipsburgh, married Marytje de Vouw, widow of the late Jacob Buys, b. in Hackensack, both living in P. His issue were:

- i. Abraham,<sup>3</sup> bap. June 11, 1715; wit.: Abram de Vouw and Myno, his wife.
- ii. Jan, bap. June 24, 1718; wit.: Johannis de Vouw and Suzana de Vouw.
- iii. Janitie, bap. Aug. 31, 1720; wit.: Louwerins Bancke and Niese, his wife.
- iv. Necklaes, bap. April 23, 1723; wit.: Adolf Bancken and Catharina de Vouw.
- v. Raghel, bap. Dec. 4, 1725; wit.: Abraham Martelings and Raghel, his wife.
- vi. Hendreck, bap. April 11, 1730; wit.: Jan Boeckhout and Maritie, his wife.

VI. Isaac, bap. Aug. 21, 1733; wit.: Claas Storm, Raghel, his wife.

The Jan. Janitie m. Barent Duyser in 1738, and her sister Raghel m. Petrus Storm in 1744.

FREDRIK<sup>2</sup> BANCKER (Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in New York, May 12, 1698. Fredreck Bancke, j. m., and Aeltie Storm, j. d., both bap. living in Phillips Burg were m. April 1, 1721. Their issue were:

- i. Tomus,<sup>3</sup> bap. April 10, 1725; wit.: Tomus Storm and Crestena, his wife.
- ii. Hendreck, bap. Oct. 28, 1727; wit.: Hendreck and Maritie Bancken.
- iii. Johannis, bap. April 11, 1730; wit.: Jan Canckley and Annatie Ecker.
- iv. Abraham, bap. April 23, 1734; wit.: Abraham Bancker and Wyntie Cranchydt.
- v. Engeltie, bap. Aug. 20, 1737; wit.: Abraham Bancker and Annatie Storm.

Frederick Bancker d. sometime after, and his widow Aaltje Storms m. June 9, 1744, Daniel Lamoureux, widower.

ADOLFF<sup>2</sup> BANCKER (Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in Manor of Philipsburg in 1701 (month and day omitted in the record). Adolfus Bancker, j. m., b. in P., and Maritie Schouthen, b. in Manor of Cortlandt, both living in P., were m. Jan. 16, 1724-5. He was elected a deacon of the Sleepy Hollow Church in 1736, again in 1737, retiring in 1742. His issue were:

- i. Janitie,<sup>3</sup> bap. April 24, 1731; wit.: Jan Boeckhout and his wife Maritie.
- ii. Jan, bap. June 26, 1733; wit.: Jan Evere and Elizabeth Boeckhout.
- iii. Jeremias, bap. June 17, 1735; wit.: Jeremias Meier and Annatie, his wife.

There is no further record of this family upon the Sleepy Hollow book.

ROMBOUT<sup>2</sup> BANCKER (Laurens<sup>1</sup>), the first son by the second wife Niesse De Groot, was bap. at New York, Nov. 5, 1701. Rombout Bancke, j. m., and Maritie Davidson, j. d., both bap. living in Philipsburg, were m. Aug. 5, 1727. Their issue were:

- i. Louwerins,<sup>3*</sup> bap. April 27, 1728; wit.: Louwerins and Niesen Bancken.
- ii. David, bap. April 11, 1730; wit.: Albartus Gardener and Janitie Davids.
- iii. Barbera, bap. June 15, 1737; wit.: Johannis Bancker and his wife Chatarina.
- iv. Abraham, bap. June 16, 1744; wit.: Abraham Juel and his wife Zara.

Rombout Banker and Barbera Banker were witnesses at Thelety baptism in 1756, the latest date at which the family appears on the church record.

* It is worthy of notice that this is the only instance, so far discovered, wherein any son of Laurens Bancker named a son for the grandfather. It is an indication, perhaps, that the name had not descended in the family.

BANCKER (Laurens<sup>1</sup>), the youngest son was bap. in Sleepy Hollow, March 21, 1711. He was a witness in 1730 and 1731, in both cases associated with a Niese, probably his brother. Joannis Bancken, j. m., and Catharina Davids, j. d., were m. Aug. 10, 1734. His children were:

- i. Niese,<sup>2</sup> bap. June 17, 1735; wit.: Louwerins Bancken and his wife Niesen.*
- ii. Myno, bap. May 1, 1748; wit.: Elbert Aerse and Maragritye Roods.

There is no further mention of Johannes Bancker on the records. Jacobus Kennif and a Niesye Banker, j. d., were m. in 1731, and Jacob Timber and Meino Banker, j. d., were m. in 1767. Besides the children of Laurens Bancker already enumerated, it seems to be almost certain that there were two, and possibly three others. Antje, the wife of Hendrick Krankheyt, was from the church record of Sleepy Hollow, to have been married, and intimately connected with the head of the family. She may have been a younger sister, or a dau. b. before the opening of the New York record of his children. It is not probable that she was the dau. "Anneken" who was bap. in 1718.

Catharina Bancke in 1718 and 1720 was a witness at the marriages of two Krankheyt children. She was probably one of the younger children of Laurens, and named for the lady of the manor.

Jacob Bancke in 1716 and 1720 was a witness at the baptisms of two Boeckhout children, and March 15, 1723-4, Jacob Bancke, j. m., and Raghel Montras, j. d., both b. in and living at Philipsburg, were m. He was probably a younger son of Laurens named for Jacob Van Cortlandt. His children were:

- i. Joannis, bap. Sept. 5, 1724; wit.: Jan Boeckhout and his wife Maritie.
- ii. Jacobus, bap. June 24, 1727; wit.: Jan Montras and Maragriet Montras.
- iii. Petrus, bap. April 11, 1730; wit.: Adolff Bancken and his wife Maritie.
- iv. Joannis, bap. Oct. 17, 1732; wit.: Ressardt Storms and his wife Mary.
- v. Aaltie, bap. March 4, 1735 (no wit. recorded).

ABRAHAM<sup>3</sup> BANCKER (Hendrick,<sup>2</sup> Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in Sleepy Hollow, June 11, 1715. Abraham Bancken, j. m., and Raghel Montras, j. d., both b. in and living at Philipsburg, were m. Sept. 10, 1734. His issue were:

- i. Ary,<sup>4</sup> bap. June 12, 1742; wit.: Ary Buys and his wife Maritie.
- ii. Abraham, bap. Nov. 10, 1744 (b. Nov. 5); wit.: Abraham Artse and his wife Leeya.

* This is the last mention in the records of either Laurens or his wife.

<sup>4</sup> Ary was the Dutch equivalent of Adrian or Aaron. It is to be noted that Ary's mother had been the wife of Jacob Buys of Hackensack.

iii. Mary, bap. July 20, 1747 (b. June 26); wit.: Ary Buys and his wife.

iv. Rachel, bap. Oct. 25, 1749; wits.: William Aer and his wife.

v. Rabecka, bap. April 15, 1754 (b. Dec. 27, 1753); wits.: Barent Delameter and his wife.

vi. Elisabeth, bap. April 25, 1758; wit.: Johannis Martlinghs and his wife.

NICOLAS<sup>3</sup> BANCKER (Hendrick,<sup>2</sup> Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in Sleepy Hollow, April 23, 1723. Nicolaes Banker, j. m., and Madleent Van Wormer, j. d., b. in Catskill, both living in Philipsburg, were m. June 25, 1748. His issue were:

i. Isaac, bap. Aug. 24, 1748; wit.: Hendrick Bancker and his wife (the grandparents).

ii. Cornelus, bap. Oct. 25, 1749; wit.: Cornelus Van Wormer and his wife.

HENDRICK<sup>3</sup> BANCKER (Hendrick,<sup>2</sup> Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in Sleepy Hollow, April 11, 1730. Hendrick Bancker, j. m., and Rens Matus, j. d., b. on Lang Islandt, both living in Philipsburg, were m. April 26, 1751. He had:

i. Emie,<sup>4</sup> bap. April 4, 1753; wit.: Barent Duyster and his wife.

ii. Fiebie, bap. Nov. 5, 1756; wit.: Ary Buys and his wife.

The father removed to New York, and in the records of the Dutch Church there we read: "Hendrik Bancker Wed<sup>e</sup> van Philipsburg and Marytje Calfort Wed<sup>e</sup> van Hoog Duitsland, beide wonende alhier," Nov. 16, 1765. Mrs. Colford was the widow of William, and her maiden name was Byrd. Of her Colford children, Sally, m. a Savage and left descendants; Eleanor m. John Jones and her children m. into the Schermerhorn, Pendleton and Mason families, and Mary m. George McAlpine. Hendrick Bancker's children by his second wife were Susan, who m. Jacob Clinch; Nancy, who m. John Boyer, and a son Hendrick or Henry of New York.

HENDRICK<sup>3</sup> BANCKER (Frederic,<sup>2</sup> Laurens<sup>1</sup>), was bap. in Sleepy Hollow, Oct. 28, 1727. Hendrick Banker, j. m., and Catrina Van Tessel, j. d., were m. Nov. 17, 1750, both natives of and resident at Philipsburg. Their issue were:

i. Fredrick,<sup>4</sup> bap. Oct. 8, 1751; wit.: Gorus Banker* and Jannitty.

ii. Aaltje, bap. Oct. 28, 1753; wit.: Jacob and Aaltje Van Tessel.

iii. Jan, bap. June 17, 1755; wit.: Johannis Martlinghs and his wife.

This Hendrick was of Capt. Requa's company in service during the Revolutionary War. He d. Oct., 1804, at the age of 77, and was buried in the shadow of the church that his grandparents Laurens and Janneken Hendricks had been instrumental in founding.

* This name, Gorus (George) Banker, does not again occur in the Sleepy Hollow records, and it may be that the person designated was Tomus (Thomas), the oldest son of Frederic and Aeltie Storm.

OF GERMANS FROM THE PALATINATE WHO CAME TO ENGLAND IN 1709.

The following lists are copied from the original documents preserved in the British Museum Library, London, England, and will be of the greatest genealogical interest to those families in the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and elsewhere, which claim descent from the so-called Palatine settlers. The lists have never before been printed to the knowledge of the Editor, and it should be noted that the word "son" or "sons" or "dau." or "daus." followed by figures denote that the heads of the family had as many sons or daughters, as there are figures, and that these sons and daughters were of the respective ages denoted by the figures. The word "wife" indicates that the head of the family was married and that the wife was living. The abbreviations "Ref.," "Luth.," "Bap." and "Cath.," mean that the family belonged to the Reformed, Lutheran, Baptist or Catholic Churches.

BOARD OF TRADE MISCELLANEOUS. VOL. 2 D. 64.

The second list of 1193 Palatines lately come over from Germany into this kingdom taken at Walworth, 27th of May, 1709, by Mr. John Tribbeko and Mr. Ruperti, German Ministers.

Letter

George Olin Zabruskie to Mr Kenneth Benson.

14 Dec 1963

A Jan Borgond married Rachel Matthyssen. She was born in Hackensack, Bergen Co. N.J. and baptized 4 May 1705 in the Lutheran Church. Her parents were Mattheus Cornelissen and Truytje Hendricks, and her paternal grandfather was a Swede (and a Lutheran) who came to New Netherland and married a Dutch girl. His name was Niels Madson, but the Dutch converted this to Cornelis Matthyssen or Matheussen. Jan + John in English) and Rachel had at least three children: Jannetje, living at Hackensack at the time of her marriage 27 Mar 1749 to Joost Scheitz (George Schurtz)

Rachel, born 4 Jan 1738, bapt. 27 June 1740 Lutheran

Margaret, born 23 Aug 1740, bapt 1 Mar 1741 Lutheran

These last two girls were born in the Ramapo Valley on the border line between Bergen Co. N.J. and Rockland Co. N.Y. Their home was likely between the present village of Park Ridge and the Saddle River a mile or two to the west

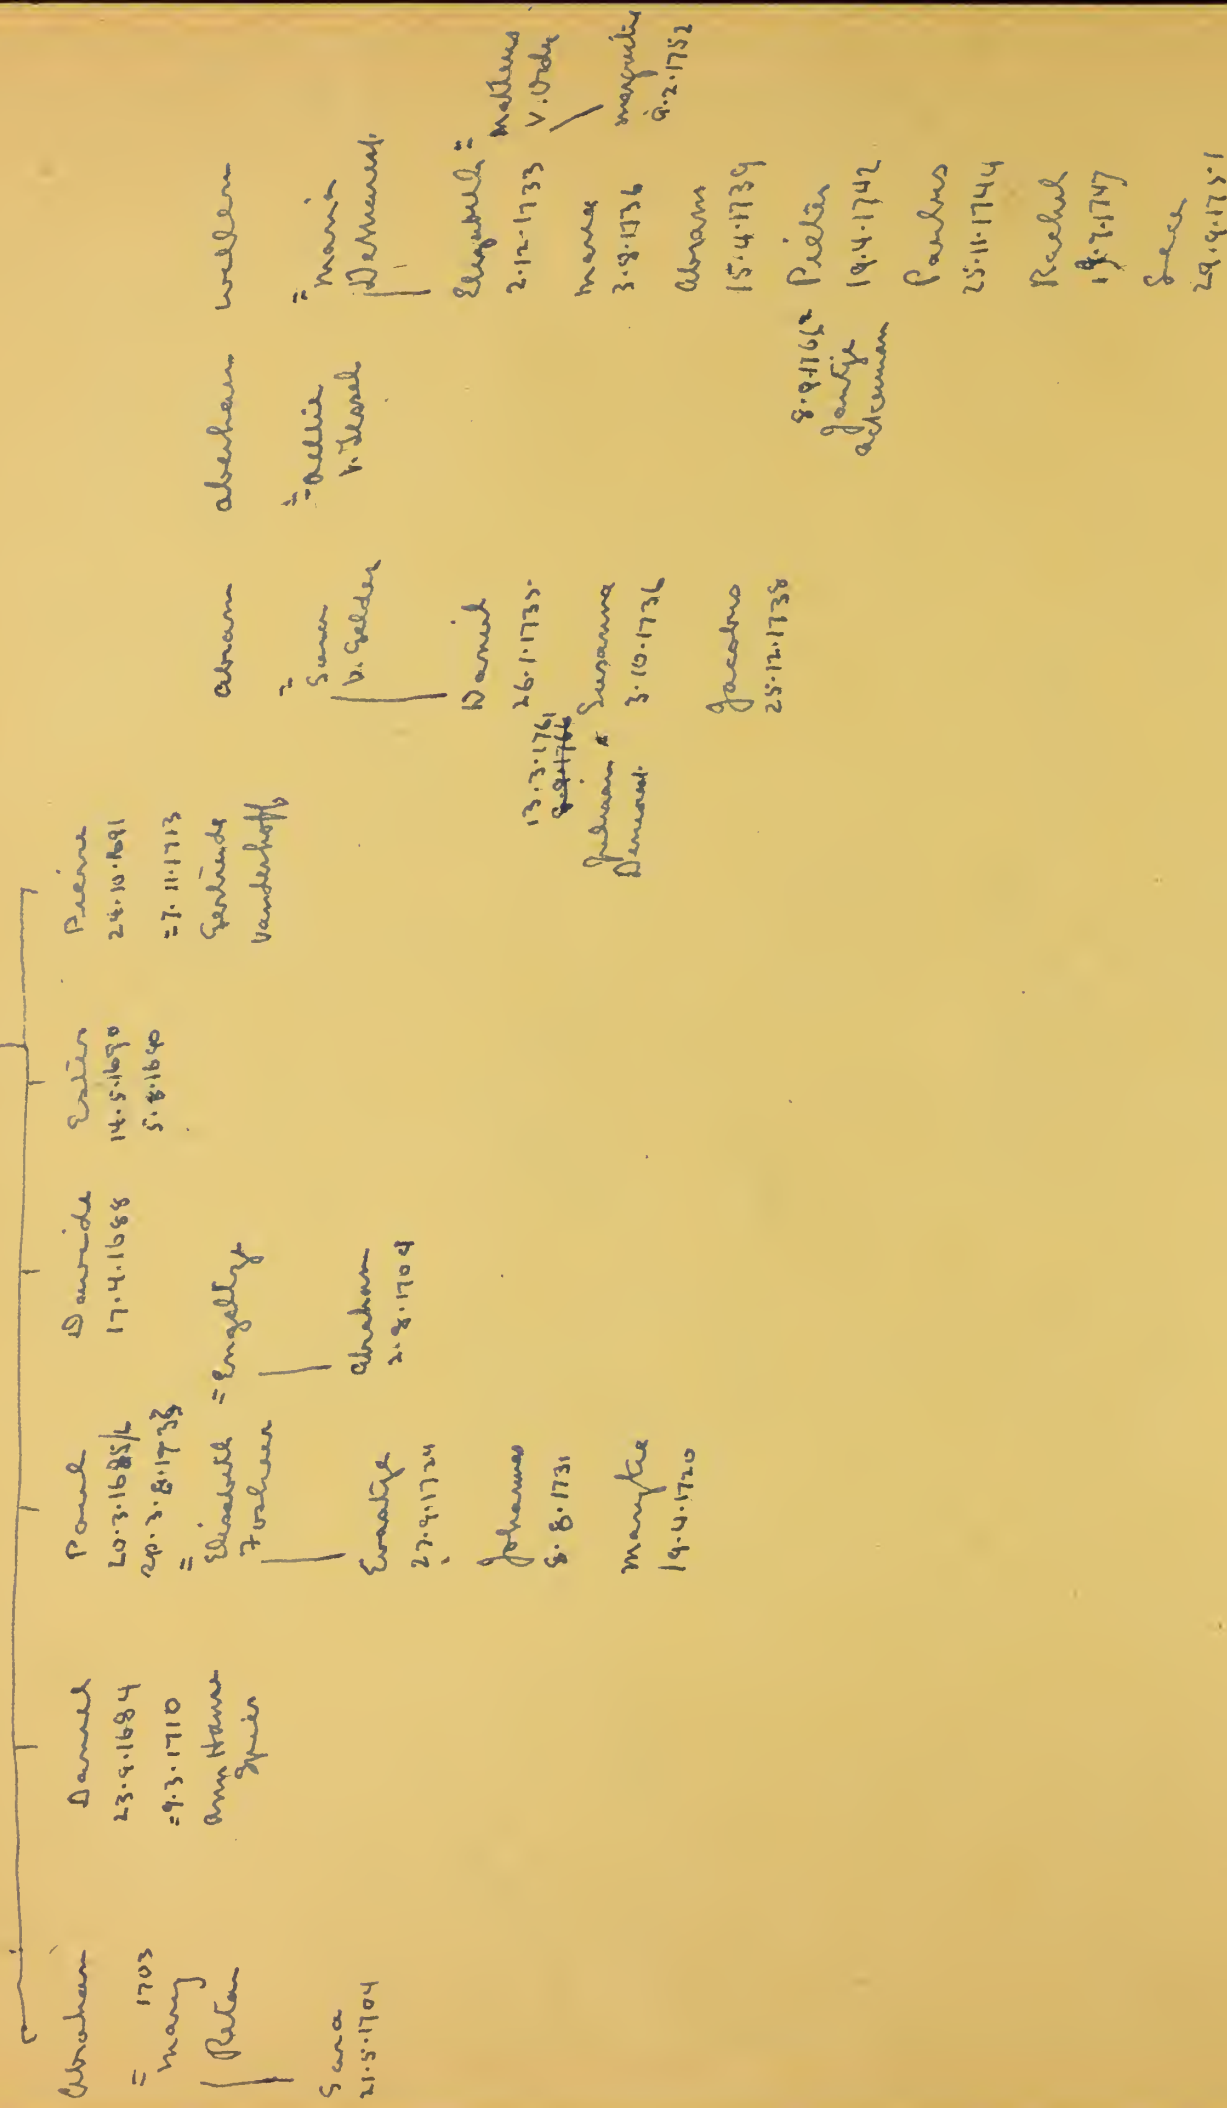

Rachel the mother married second 11 June 1747 (Lutheran)

Lucas Cornelisse Van Hoorn, who lived and died in Bergen County.

Dear William -

Help!

Please send me your Hackensack Register, or take a quick peek at it & settle my miseries, or have the Doctor give me a pill.

The will of Mathew Cornelisse, of Bergen Co., New Jersey was drawn 17 Dec 1743 and probated 31 Jan 1748. In it he mentions daughter, Margriet Vanorden (wife of Albert Van Orden).

Rachel Begonem

and grandson

Mathew Cornelisse.

Hackensack Dutch Ref. Ch. records have this

~~Mar 6, 1717~~

Feb. 9, 1717, Albert Janse Van Orden & Margrete Matthyse, married. Both born and living in Ackensack.

Aug 8, 1718, Cornelis Matthys & Maritie Davidse De Wae married. Both born & living in Ackensack.

Graphically, I determine the above to be

Mathew Cornelisse
1644 1743 prob 1748

┌──────────┴──────────┐
Margaret = 1717      Rachel      Cornelis Matthys = 1718 Maritie
  Albert Janse      = Begonem      Davidse De Wae
  Van Orden

Mathew Cornelisse

Bay Hackensack 23 Aug 1719

according to Genealogy Genealogy

Apparently the register followed, in this instance, the custom of alternating surnames with each generation. Therefore, when I copied a few items of Matthys, I failed to record Cornelisse items.

So I would like to see the book, if you will rent it to me, and I can drive to Bellville any day, if that is agreeable to you, you naming date and place.

Best regards to the Doctor and bread

Sincerely

H. A. Barclay
